Crêpe Night – Saturday, January 26

In France, crêpes are traditionally served on Candlemas which is February 2. This day was originally Virgin Mary's Blessing Day, but became known in France as "Le Jour des Crêpes" or "The Day of the Crêpes". The belief was that if you could catch the crêpe with a frying pan after tossing it in the air with your right hand and holding a gold coin in your left hand, you would become rich that year.
